RESEARCH INTERESTS

My primary research interest focuses on the morpho-functional study of avian and dinosaurian hind limbs, focusing on the biomechanical interpretation of morphological characters. Data thus obtained and coupled with field studies are used to reconstruct the adaptive evolution of modern and extinct avian groups and their closest relatives. The other research relates to fields of archaeozoology and archaeoanthropology. A rich material from archaeological excavations of Tver, Tver region, and adjacent areas is identified and evaluated. Special attention is paid to the human dental system and the relation of its state to diet. Questions of modern evolution theory (primarily synthetic) are of particular interest. Theoretical aspects of adaptive evolution and its role in speciation are researched.

EDUCATION

Higher School of Economy, Moscow, Russia, MSc, Management 2014

Dissertation: Educational success of students in regional university in relation to the level of education of family members (an example of Biological Faculty of Tver State University)

Lomonosov Moscow State University, Moscow, Russia. Doctor Habil., Biology 2007

Dissertation: Comparative Anatomy, Structural Modifications and Adaptive Evolution of Avian Hind Limbs

Lomonosov Moscow State University, Moscow, Russia. Ph.D., Biology 1999

Dissertation: Avian Hind Limbs as an Organ of Bipedal Locomotion

Tver State University, Tver, Russia M.A., Biology, Chemistry 1992

Thesis: Morphological and Ecological Peculiarities of Hind Limbs of Running Passerines

Kalinin Secondary School #36, Kalinin (now Tver), Soviet Union (now Russia)

B.A. 1985

EXPERIENCE

Acting Rector for Science and Innovative Development, 2020 – nowadays, Tver State University, Tver, Russia

Professor (part-time) of the Founding Department of the Shemyakin and Ovchinnikov Institute of Bioorganic Chemistry, Faculty of Biology and Biotechnology, 2020 – nowadays, Higher School of Economics, Moscow, Russia

Head of the Zoology and Physiology Department, 2018 – nowadays, Tver State University, Tver, Russia

Head of the Biology Department, 2013 – 2018, Tver State University, Tver, Russia

Professor, 2008 - nowadays Tver State University, Tver, Russia

Associate Professor, 2003-2008 Tver State University, Tver, Russia

Courses: Vertebrate Zoology, Evolutionary Theory, Cytology, Paleontology, Biological Anthropology, Field Classes of Vertebrate and Invertebrate Zoology

Visiting Scholar, 2004, 2007, 2008 Natural History Museum, Humboldt University, Berlin, Germany

Post-Doc Research

Senior Researcher, 2002-2003 Russian-Vietnamese Tropical Center, Vietnam

Research: Birds of Tropical Forest of Southern Vietnam

Associate Professor, 2001-2002 Tver State University, Tver, Russia

Courses: Vertebrate Zoology, Evolutionary Theory, Cytology, Paleontology

Senior Researcher, 2000-2001 Russian-Vietnamese Tropical Center, Vietnam

Research: Birds of Tropical Forest of Southern Vietnam

Senior Teacher, 1997-1999 Tver State University, Tver, Russia.

Courses: Vertebrate Zoology, Evolutionary Theory, Cytology

Post-Graduate, 1994-1997 Moscow State University, Moscow, Russia

Ph.D. Research

Visiting Scholar, 1995-1996 Museum of Natural History, University of Kansas, KA, US

Ph.D. Research

Professor Assistant, 1993-1994 Tver State University, Tver, Russia

Courses: Vertebrate Zoology, Evolutionary Theory

Visiting Scholar, 1992-1993 Eastern Washington University, WA, US

Ph.D. Research

POSTDOCTORAL TRAINING

Post-Doc Fellow, 2004-2007 Moscow State University, Moscow, Russia

Post-Doc Thesis: Comparative Anatomy, Structural Modifications and Adaptive Evolution of Avian Apparatus of Bipedal Locomotion

EXPERTISE

Expert of Federal Register of Science/Technology Experts, 2012-now

Ministry of Education and Science of the Russian Federation, Moscow, Russia

Expert of State Commission for Academic Degrees and Titles in Biological Sciences, 2014-now

Ministry of Education and Science of the Russian Federation, Moscow, Russia

Expert of The Federal Agency for Scientific Organizations (FASO), 2017-now, Moscow, Russia

Expert of the Expert Council in Biology (04) of the Russian Foundation for Basic Research (RFBR), 2019-now, Moscow, Russia

Expert of the Federal Educational and Methodological Association (FEMA) "Biological Sciences", 2019-now, Moscow, Russia
